FIERCE TANK BATTLES CONTINUE TO RAGE IN NORTH AFRICA

British Claims of Success On Libyan Desert Disputed In Berlin and Rome Reports

By the Associated Press

Masses of British and Axis tanks swirled in chaotic battle over the sands of North Africa today, Russia's Red armies fought to stem a German onslaught within 50 miles of Moscow, and Berlin tersely reported a British attempt to land troops Sunday night on the coast of France.

British front-line dispatches, claiming victory over the Germans in at least one sector of the Rezzagh battle zone, 10 miles south of Tobruk, said the Nazis were gradually being cut off from their supplies by Imperial columns driving westward along the Mediterranean coast.

Cairo reports said that the great three-day tank battle at Rezzagh had begun to die down, as a result of heavy losses on both sides, but that British infantry reinforcements were pouring into the fighting from their bases east and south.

As pictured by the British, German General Erwin Rommel's tank forces were badly crippled and there was no indication of fresh German troops being sent into action.

On the Ukraine front, Soviet dispatches reported that a powerful Russian counter-offensive west of Rostov-on-Don had hurled the Germans back 62 miles and that the invaders were rushing new troops to the threatened area.

Nazi losses were described as "enormous," with the 16th German Tank Division "almost completely smashed."

The German high command on Saturday had claimed the capture of Rostov, northern gateway to the Caucasus oil fields, but the Russians reported on Sunday that fierce tank and machine-gun battles were still raging in the city's streets.

Today's dispatches indicated that the Russians were making now a furious attempt to recapture Rostov, after breasting the initial German drive beyond the strategic Don river port.

In London, the ministry of information said that a "small British patrol" landed on the Normandy coast, in German-occupied France Sunday night, and that the lone casualty was a man struck in the arm by a machine-gun bullet.

In view of Prime Minister Winston Churchill's statement that Britain will not be ready to attempt an invasion of the continent until 1942, the thrust presumably was another in a series of small-scale raids for sabotage purposes.

On the Libyan desert front, authoritative London quarters described the action in Gen. Sir Alan Cunningham's eight-day-old offensive as "very confused" and said "very hard" fighting continued.

From the Axis capitals, Berlin and Rome, came synchronized reports of British reverses.

German military quarters asserted Britain's steam-roller was "jammed" and that Axis leadership had taken the initiative.

In Rome, Premier Mussolini's high command reported that Italian and German columns had wiped out two British armored brigades in two days and declared the Axis was liquidating a large part of Imperial armored forces caught in pockets.

The Italians also denied British claims to the capture of Bardia, 10 miles west of the Egyptian frontier, and the high command asserted that "nothing has been" (Turn to Page Five)

THIRTEEN SIGN PACT WITH AXIS

Pact Signed at Noon Ceremony in Berlin Provides That Contracting Powers Will Consult With Each Other Concerning Further Cooperation Before Expiration of Five-Year Period

THE NANKING REGIME OF CHINA INCLUDED

Berlin, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The anti-comintern pact sponsored by Germany was renewed for five years and broadened to include 13 signatories today in a festive ceremony at which Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop declared that the western democracies had become "assistants to world Communism."

Concluding the ceremonies in the chancellery where the pact was hailed as a demonstration of continental solidarity against Moscow, London and Washington, Ribbentrop declared the signatories "will never rest" until the destruction of world Communism.

Following the "gigantic events in the east" Communism without doubt has received a blow from which it will never recover, he said, but he added that there still was much work to be done before Communistic activity is "completely banished from the earth."

Bulgaria, Denmark, Finland, Croatia, Rumania and Slovakia were officially signed up by their representatives in a noon ceremony at the Reichschancellery, and German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop read a telegram from Foreign Minister Dr. T. Sumlin-Yee of the Japanese sponsored Nanking regime of China that his government had also joined.

The Berlin press hailed the gathering as a demonstration of continental solidarity against Moscow, London and Washington.

The new members joined Germany and Japan, the original signatories, Italy, Spain, Hungary and Manchukuo in the agreement, which was described by Berlin newspapers as aimed against "all destructive powers which, direct" (Turn to Page Nine)

BRITAIN TRIES TO LAND TROOPS ON FRENCH SOIL

German High Command in Reporting Invasion Attempt Insists That English Were Repulsed With Heavy Losses

POINT IS NOT REVEALED

Berlin, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The German high command for the first time mentioned an English attempt to set foot on occupied French soil today, saying that the British tried to land from boats Sunday night and were repulsed with heavy losses.

Although the high command did not give the number, size or type of boats involved in the operations in its curt reference, an authorized source belittled the incident by saying the whole affair involved a mere 40 or 50 men.

This source was unwilling to discuss the place of the incident, and the high command did not say whether the British actually had succeeded in getting ashore. (The British said the Normandy coast was scene of the foray.)

The German command also said torpedo boats attacked a strong convoy off the British (Turn to Page Nine)

QUAKER CITY RELIEF BOARD BEING PROBED

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The Philadelphia county relief board was expected today to present evidence in an effort to substantiate its contention that some of the 50 employees recently discharged for subservient activities are Communist party "fellow travelers."

William C. Ferguson, Jr., special counsel for the 23-member board hearing appeals of 38 discharged employees, asserted that while it was impossible to show that any of the appellants are or were members of the Communist party, "we can only prove a member by what he says or does."

RESIGNATION OF JUDGE DAVIS IS ACCEPTED TODAY

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—President Roosevelt accepted today the resignation of retired Judge J. Warren Davis of the third United States circuit court of appeals, to take effect immediately. He submitted his resignation last week.

Davis, who is 75, retired from active duty in 1939, and an investigation of his official conduct was begun the following year. Last March he was indicted, along with William Fox, one-time motion picture producer, and Morgan S. Kaufman, Scranton, Pa. Fox's attorney, on charges of conspiring to obstruct justice and defraud the United States.

The retired jurist and Kaufman were tried twice at Philadelphia, but the juries disagreed at both trials. The justice department decided against a third trial, and Attorney General Biddle asked the house judiciary committee to institute impeachment proceedings against Davis, who continued in retirement to draw his $12,000 annual salary.

Fox pleaded guilty and was sentenced to a year and a day imprisonment, from which he has appealed. The charges against Kaufman and Davis have been dropped by the government. (Turn to Page Five)

JAMES' LETTER GIVES VIEWS ON EXTRA SESSION

Governor, Answering Democratic Demand for Immediate Convening of Assembly Promises Action Next Summer if Needed

FIGURES ARE DISPUTED

Harrisburg, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Governor James, answering a Democratic demand for an immediate special session to reduce taxes, says summer "if there is a huge increase" at that time.

The governor issued a lengthy statement replying to Rep. Leo A. Achteman, Democratic floor leader in a house, who had addressed an open letter to James saying there would be a surplus of $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 by the end of the 1941-42 biennium.

Big Chief Lee can possibly know at this moment whether we are running ahead or behind in our fiscal affairs," the governor said, after describing the Monroe county Democrat as "the same reckless young brave who led the new deal tribe up so many dead-end trails during the last session."

The governor accused Achteman of "making political war medicine" in his open letter.

"The first time we will really know how our revenues compare with our expenses will be at the close of the first fiscal year of the biennium, next May 31st," said James.

James said the immediate tax reductions proposed by Achteman "would relieve only two special classes—first, those who consume" (Turn to Page Five)

Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 25.—(AP)—The Times-Star, afternoon daily founded in 1790 as the Republican Farmer, carried on its first page today an announcement that publication was being suspended as of today. "Confronting a difficult and uncertain future," the Times-Star reluctantly has decided to end this issue today its long and honorable career as an independent Connecticut newspaper," the announcement said.

THREE KILLED NEAR PLYMOUTH

Plymouth, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Three men were killed and three others seriously injured early today when their car failed to negotiate a curve and plunged 45 feet off the Carey avenue bridge into the dry bed of the Susquehanna river.

Dr. Lewis Riese, county coroner, identified the dead as: "Michael McAndrew and Joseph Mack, Pittston, and Ford R. Deaky, West Pittston. The injured are William Weaver, Robert Fox and Wilfred Howell, West Pittston."

Authorities related the car heading for the bridge which connects Hanover township and Plymouth, leaped the iron guard rail and dropped into the river bed. The men were crushed in the wrecked car, twisted metal binding them to the seats and flooring. Police of surrounding communities were called to aid in extricating the victims.

President of Brotherhood of Trainmen About Ready To Suggest Government Take Over Transportation Lines During Emergency

OTHER CONTROVERSIES

By the Associated Press. Representatives of railways and their workers, meeting with President Roosevelt and other government executives in another effort to avert a strike, failed to reach an agreement today but agreed to continue negotiations.

The entire group arranged to return to the White House in the afternoon.

While unwilling to admit that any definite formula for an adjustment of their wage controversy had been laid before the management and labor spokesmen, Senator Mead (D-NY) indicated that some sort of proposals looking toward an adjustment had been considered and said that the situation still looked hopeful.

CHARGE FINLAND WITH OFFERING AID TO GERMANY

Secretary Stimson and Major General Burns Deplore Position of Helsinki Toward Reich and Declare It Should be Altered

ANSWERS INQUIRIES

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Secretary of War Stimson charged today that Finnish troops "are now being used by the Germans" in such a way as to help the Germans close the Murmansk-Moscow supply line over which outside aid flows into Russia.

In a statement issued simultaneously with that of the secretary, Major General James H. Burns, deputy lend-lease administrator who recently returned from Russia, Stimson also declared that the Finns "are offering Germany great assistance in cutting across our national interest in the supply of lend-lease material to Russia."

Both Stimson and Burns said they deplored the Finnish position and declared that it should be altered.

Stimson was on the White House calling list today for what was described there as a "check-up" conference. Also seeing Mr. Roosevelt at the time were Secretary of State Hull, Secretary of Navy Knox, General George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, and Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of naval operations.

Usually the chief executive tries to see this group at least once a week to check up on defense plans and efforts.

The Stimson-Burns statements were issued through Brigadier General Alexander D. Surles, army chief of public relations, who said that numerous inquiries had prompted them.

Stimson referred to the "landable ambition of the Finnish nation to recover ground lost to the Russians in the last war between these nations," but he said that regardless of that ambition now (Turn to Page Five)

MOVE TO SEND FORCE TO GUIANA WINS APPROVAL

Dispatch of Protective Troops of United States Soldiers to Dutch Colony Linked With Critical Status of Vichy

GUARD BAUXITE MINES

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The dispatch of a protective force of United States troops to Dutch Guiana won much commendation in the senate today, and the general disposition was to link the move with the critical status of Franco-American relations.

Several senators, speaking of the Dutch colony's rich bauxite mines, said that President Roosevelt obviously intended to forestall any threat to this vital supply source which furnishes more than 60 per cent of the bauxite ore required by this country's rapidly expanding aluminum industry.

Although none claimed to have confidential information, some well-informed legislators thought that Mr. Roosevelt may have acted from concern lest Germany occupy Dakar, France's strategic base on the western hump of Africa, and then try later to move into French Guiana, which borders the Dutch colony in the northeast coast of South America.

Disputatious quarters have received a number of reports of Nazi activity in French Guiana, and it is known that citizens of the Dutch colony have been uneasy about conditions in the French penal colony ever since the fall of France.

The cessation of French food shipments has worsened the plight of some 10,000 convicts there, and many of the regular guards have deserted. An easily forded river separates the two colonies, and until the recent arrival of Dutch reinforcements from England, only a few hundred men could be mustered in Dutch Guiana's defense.

Apparently neither the French colonial authorities nor the Vichy government were consulted regarding the United States decision to support the recent Dutch reinforcements with American troops, but the step had the approval of both the Netherlands government and of Brazil, which adjoins both the Dutch and French colonies.

Burns manifested her approval by announcing the dispatch of a military mission to cooperate with Dutch and U. S. troops in guarding the bauxite mines and simultaneously served notice last night that she would not be neutral if any other American nation became involved in the war.

MANY SOLDIERS SCHEDULED FOR YULE FURLOUGHS

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The army said Merry Christmas a month in advance today—with the tidings that between 700,000 and 800,000 soldiers would get Yuletide furloughs.

By the war department's estimate, approximately half of the land forces will be granted leaves to go home for the holidays and this raised the prospect of the biggest Christmas transportation rush in more than two decades.

Belief was expressed, nevertheless, that there would be enough train seating of railway passenger or freight schedules.

In cooperation with the Association of American Railways, plans (Turn to Page Nine)

Chief Executive in Conference With Key House Members Said to Have Reported That He Appeared to Favor Suggestions for Cooling Off Period and Compulsory Arbitration in Dispute

ISSUE TO BE BROUGHT DURING COMING WEEK

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The house labor committee instructed Rep. Ramspeck (D-Ga.), one of its members, today to prepare by Friday a new bill to control defense strikes based on President Roosevelt's recommendations for cooling off periods and compulsory arbitration.

BULLETIN

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The house labor committee instructed Rep. Ramspeck (D-Ga.), one of its members, today to prepare by Friday a new bill to control defense strikes based on President Roosevelt's recommendations for cooling off periods and compulsory arbitration.

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—President Roosevelt told congress to start writing its own ticket today on strike curbing legislation. The chief executive conferred more than two hours last night with key house members—Republicans as well as Democrats—who reported that he appeared to favor suggestions for a cooling off period and compulsory arbitration when strike calls threaten defense production.

The scope of the legislation and details of the bill apparently were left strictly up to the lawmakers, although Mr. Roosevelt was said to have made it clear he thought it was time for congress to act.

House Majority Leader McCormack of Massachusetts and Minority Leader Martin of the same state stood side by side when interviewed by reporters at the conclusion of the extraordinary White House meeting.

With nine other house members, Attorney General Biddle, Labor Secretary Perkins and her assistant, Daniel W. Tracy, they had gone over the whole knotty problem of defense strikes with the president, and exchanged individual views on how best to cope with the situation.

McCormack said it was "pretty generally agreed" that there should be "a waiting period called for by law" before a strike could be put into effect in a defense industry, and that "the president should have the power, in the final analysis, to order arbitration."

Some of the other conferees said it was not clear to them whether the president favored a simple man-

AGED WOMAN IS VICTIM OF A RAPIST-KILLER

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Through questioning of neighbors, police today sought some clue to the identity of a rapist-killer who sneaked into the room of a 70-year-old crippled woman and bludgeoned her after an attack.

The body of Elizabeth Keeler, 70, was found used both names—Keeler—she used both names—when he lived in a rooming house in her lodgings Saturday.

Dr. William S. Wadsworth, chief coroner's physician, reported an autopsy disclosed Mrs. Keeler had been raped.

Able to move about only with the aid of two canes, Mrs. Keeler lived in two squalid rooms on the ground floor of a rooming house, supported recently by weekly relief checks.

SCULLY VICTORY IS CHALLENGED

Pittsburgh, Nov. 25.—(AP)—A petition charging that the reelection of Mayor Cornelius D. Scully on Nov. 5 was "false and fraudulent" and declaring that Harman D. Denny, Jr., Republican candidate, should be named the winner filed in common pleas court yesterday a few minutes before the deadline for such contests.

The petition, signed by 30 electors including Denny's campaign manager, asserted "no legal election" was held in any of 21 districts contested and asked the court to throw out 13,500 votes which the official returns gave to Scully.

Most of the districts challenged by the petition are located in the first, second, third, fifth and sixth wards, which were in heavy (Turn to Page Five)

Christmas Savings Funds to Pay $26,990,174 in Pennsylvania

By the Associated Press. Those thirty Pennsylvanians who put a little of their paycheck each week into Christmas savings funds will have about 15 per cent more to spend this year than in 1940 a survey revealed today.

Reports from about 40 communities and scattered sections of several larger counties, indicate the funds this year will total $26,990,174, as compared with slightly more than $22,990,147 in the same districts in 1940. Most areas reported a slightly higher number of depositors with defense industry boom swelling contributions.

Only one major city of the state Philadelphia—reported a decrease in payments there, a survey of banks indicated the 1941 fund would total $8,766,000 as compared with $9,200,000 last year. The decline was attributed by one banker to discontinuance of the funds as a non-interest paying proposition for the depositors. A few banks charge Christmas depositors a slight carrying fee, the banker pointed out, but the majority conduct the accounts simply as a service to the public. Contributions come from hundreds of thousands of investors, in amounts ranging from as little as ten cents a week in a few smaller communities to a weekly top of $10.

Pittsburgh, second largest metropolitan area in the state, accounted for a sizeable chunk of the 1941 savings—$4,000,000—the Harrisburg banks recorded $1,402,960; $1,395,000. Reading, $1,126,500. Last year the Pittsburgh accounts totaled $3,020,180; Harrisburg's were $1,224,600; Erie's $1,040,000, and Reading's, $1,015,000. (Turn to Page Nine)

PILOT TALKS AT TRINITY MEN'S CLUB MEETING

The Men's Club of the Trinity Memorial church was delightfully entertained at its monthly meeting last night by Everett Elliott, formerly of Warren, and now a pilot for Curtiss-Wright.

Mr. Elliott, in an informal question and answer discussion, gave his audience some most interesting information regarding the testing of modern war planes both in this country and abroad. His experience in testing craft that failed—falling apart in mid-air during a power dive—made his audience appreciate the type of courageous, intelligent and quick thinking men that it takes to prove the worth of fighting planes today, so they might be better craft in the future.

Mr. Elliott has just returned from Iran, where he assembled and tested planes which his company sold to the Iranian government prior to the time when the British invaded Iran to protect this source of petroleum products. He was in Iran when this war broke out and between being machine gunned by the British and arrested a number of times by the Iranian government and trying to escape from the country, his audience was impressed with the fact that here was a man who in a short time lived a full and busy life.

Witch-Hazel Plant One of Attractions Found in Forests

Harrisburg, Nov. 25—One of the attractions at the State Forest, recreational areas at this time of the year, are the flowers of the witch-hazel plant, which are now in full bloom, according to Milford Bratton, Acting Director of the Bureau of Parks, Department of Forests and Waters.

Witch-hazel is the only woody plant native to Pennsylvania that bears ripe fruit and flowers at one and the same time. This widely distributed shrub is the last one to bloom during the year. The bright yellow flowers, occurring in small clusters, begin to emerge late in October and are in full bloom during the month of November. As the flowers appear the droody yellowish-brown fruit pods, resulting from blossoms of the previous year, split open and forcibly expel the smooth, shiny-black seeds.

Witch-hazel trees are found in all of the State Forest Districts where they occasionally reach heights of twenty feet and diameters of eight inches. They are picturesque objects in the wintry landscapes with their bright yellow flowers, which are seldom injured by low temperatures.

The familiar witch-hazel extract is obtained by distillation of the leaves, bark, twigs, or entire plant.

EDSON'S WASHINGTON COLUMN

BY PETER EDSON
Times-Mirror Washington Correspondent

Washington, Nov. 25.—Mouth-shooting congressmen like to make speeches about how John L. Lewis and the labor unions, the inefficiency of the red tape specialists in the military services, and the reactionary conservatism of the dollar-a-year men are bailing up the defense effort.

But right in their own sacred congressional corridors is a typical case of legislative bungling which is doing as much to slow down one phase of the defense program as anything labor leaders or the government bureaucrats have pulled off in all their worst butterfingered fielding. And that is in connection with passing a $40 million appropriation for starting construction on a couple of hydroelectric dams and generating stations in the Tennessee Valley Authority country.

As the people in the southeastern states know from personal experience and as the people in the rest of the country have read in their newspapers, there is a really serious power shortage down southeast. It isn't a mythical scare like the lakes petroleum shortage, but a genuine blackout. It hits defense industries such as aluminum phosphate, ordnance, aluminum and aircraft plants that use electric power, and for that reason the pressure is on to get something done to relieve the shortage.

In mid-August, TVA acquired from private interests the much-fought-over Fontana damsite on the Little Tennessee river. Congress was asked to appropriate $13 million to start construction. At the same time, $15 million was requested to start the Douglas dam on a branch of the Tennessee, known as the French Broad river. The Douglas dam was proposed because it could be built almost as a duplicate of the Cherokee dam, already under construction on another branch of the Tennessee, the Holston. Equipment and labor crews could be moved from Cherokee to repeat the work at Douglas. Because of this, it was estimated the Douglas dam could be built in 15 months.

On Oct. 1, the House of Representatives sub-committee on national defense deficiency appropriations got around to holding hearings. Six weeks had been lost already, and if that isn't a bottleneck, what is? The gripe is that it's still bottlenecked, after more than three months, and there is no telling when it will all be cleared.

What happened was that the project fell afoul of an old-fashioned congressional log jam. Special interests were involved, and they have been successful in blocking the Fontana and Douglas projects. The special interests happen to be three canning factories which would be put out of business if the Douglas dam were built. The battle seems to be that to preserve "canning as usual," the dam and the electric power it might produce quickly will have to be sacrificed.

The French Broad river admittedly is one of the most fertile of the upper Tennessee valley tributaries. On the French Broad lowlands farmers have been raising peas and beans which they sold to the three canning factories. If the Douglas dam were built, these lands—some 8000 acres of Class I soil—would naturally be flooded, the farmers would have to be resettled, the canning factories would go out of business. Because of these objections, the Douglas dam was not recommended before, but under the urgency of increasing the power supply the Douglas project was finally pushed out by TVA and given a big push.

A WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — Capital
talk:

Of all the odd purchases of the United States Army, the one that stirs the imagination most is that made recently for a million dollars worth of human blood. Five contracts were let to chemical laboratories, totalling $1,026,250 for the purchase of gallons of human plasma. The blood bank is stored against that time, if ever, when it might be needed for blood transfusions. This doesn't necessarily mean a fighting war reserve of human blood.
With 1,500,000 men in the Army now, the amount of blood needed for accidents resulting from training activities of a mechanized army and for "normal" illnesses is tremendous.

WASHINGTON got a good spanking the other day for way it has been entertaining and receiving soldiers on leave. Dr.
Frank S. Lloyd of the Federal Security Agency recreation division, administered the verbal paddling, with such observations as, "This is the coldest, smoothest, most upturned nose area in the United States, barring none."

This ties in with a recent personal experience. Falling in with three lads on leave from Fort Bustis, Va., I asked them what about the national capital they disliked most and the answer was immediate and all agreed: "We never have anybody to talk to."
Explanation brought out that the boys get pretty weary of being treated like persons apart—or like martyrs.

According to morale officers, a queer bit of vicious racketeering has developed here which has slowed down the District's program for placing visiting soldiers in private homes. A number of the "families" who called and offered to take lads in turned out to be houses of prostitution. Now every offer has to be investigated before it can be placed on the investigation list. The process has resulted in only comparatively few homes being added each week.

THE President has just rid himself of one of the minor headaches of national defense—the appointment of dollar-a-year men.
The law specifically gives the President the authority to appoint the dollar-a-year and WOC (without compensation) aides to the government. There being hundreds of them, the task had become considerable and continuous since so many are called in for specific jobs and remain only a short while.

There was one other drawback.
The Democrats said the President was getting in too many Republicans; the Republicans that the President was giving too many jobs to party men in the business field.

The President got a ruling from Attorney General Biddle that it was his prerogative to delegate this appointive power and immediately the President washed his hands of the whole business.
Hereafter, the dollar-a-year boys will be named by the national defense division heads—Donald Nelson, William Knudsen, Sidney Hillman and Leon Henderson.

However, this won't make any difference in the assignment of treasury investigators and FBI men to give the records and affirmations of all such appointees a thorough fine-tooth combing. It's not generally known, but a number of recommended dollar-a-year men have been turned down because of these investigations.

TRIBUTE TO SLACKWATER BOOSTER

The Valley Daily News, at Tarentum, recently carried the following editorial tribute to Thomas J. Wright, who died last week at Chautauqua, N. Y.:

The fact that Allegheny river slackwater now reaches to East Brady is due in no small way to the efforts of Thomas J. Wright, who died Saturday at his home in Chautauqua, N. Y. Few men worked harder or longer in behalf of Allegheny river improvement than Mr. Wright. His activities began in the days when there were no dams above Springdale and seemingly small prospects of getting more. But, to him, apparent hopeless causes were but challenges. The extension of slackwater as dam after dam was built farther up the river but whetted his determination to fight until slackwater reached Oil City at least.

Mr. Wright was for many years a resident of Oil City and Titusville. Long ago he became interested in the Allegheny River Improvement Association. That organization, several years ago, recognized his services by making him honorary president for life, a distinction of which he was very proud.

Through his son, Captain Donald T. Wright, Mr. Wright will continue his work in behalf of river improvement. Captain Wright, publisher of The Waterways Journal, at St. Louis, Mo., in recent years has carried forward the effort in which his father was interested for so many years. Captain Wright is a former president of the river association and its guiding influence. It is to be hoped that he will live to have a part in making come true the dream of his father—slackwater navigation to Oil City and beyond.

RED CROSS NEEDS KNITTERS

Those in charge of the knitting project of the Warren County Chapter of the American Red Cross report an acute shortage of knitters and have issued a special appeal for more women to help carry on this very necessary activity.

At this particular time of the year when every one in the community is preparing for the Thanksgiving holiday and the Yuletide season just ahead, it would seem that we are trying to be thankful without giving thought to the millions of people in the world less fortunate than we, when one realizes that there are hundreds of pounds of wool at Red Cross headquarters which should be made into garments for some poor children who are suffering from cold and hunger.

The wool is free to women who will take it home and knit it up.

Why not start knitting for the Red Cross as a medium of showing your gratitude for the blessings enjoyed here? Make this a real Thanksgiving by giving of your spare time to help others.

CHRISTMAS SEALS

The 35th annual sale of Christmas seals is under way, in aid of the national fight for prevention and control of tuberculosis and as usual the local campaign is being ably supervised by officers and members of the Warren Lions club.

The great reduction in the death rate from this dreadful disease is due to medical science and the campaign of education which has been financed through the sale of these seals.

Countless people are alive, well and happy and working today, who would not be enjoying good health had it not been for this noble campaign. If everybody only knew how the spread of this infection can be checked, and if people would make good use of this knowledge, this disease would be relatively rare.

The pretty little stamp which makes your package and envelope look so festive and Christmassy helps to pay somebody to go into homes whose occupants do not understand how to cope with this disease, and explain how they can shield themselves from this peril.

Everyone should aid in a movement that drives away so many sorrows and adds such cheer to human life, and the best and easiest way to do this is by purchasing Christmas seals.

At a meeting tonight the celebration committee will work out final details for the Christmas parade Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, and according to all reports it's going to be the best ever.

Red Cross is shipping Christmas trees to United States forces in Iceland, and if the Germans torpedoed that cargo, they're old meanies.

Never realized there are so many good looking and winsome babies in the county as were entered in the contest just closed!

The business section is rapidly taking on a yuletide appearance.

STORIES IN STAMPS

King Zog's Flight
Saved His Life

WHEN Mussolini's troops conquered Albania in 1939, it marked the end of the reign of self-proclaimed King Zog and, paradoxically enough, saved his life.

Zog, who held the little-relied title of the most-shot-at-kingalive until he fled the country, squashed 20 revolts in his half-savage nation and recovered from eight wounds. More than 800 of his wild mountaineer subjects had taken oaths to kill him and it was only a matter of time before the soldier-politician-king fell victim to an assassin's bullet.

After the royal family had departed for more hospitable and secluded retreats, the Italian occupation authorities issued the stamp above. Portraying a native's dress costume, the stamp was issued in commemoration of the resolution adopted by the National Assembly offering the Albanian Crown to Italy.

After the World War I, Ahmed Beg Zogu, who had commanded a contingent of troops co-operating with the Austrians, emerged as the "saviour of his country." Step by step he connived and intrigued until, in 1925, he was elected president.

It was but a step to dictator and thence to King Zog I in 1928.

CRANUM CRACKERS

FUN WITH FIGURES

The war hasn't gone into the quadrillion dollar stage as yet, although some of the bills it is incurring begin to look as astronomical as that multi-multi figure.
Here's your chance to have some fun with figures, large and small.

1. A couple is the parents of two sets of twins, one set of triplets and one other child. If one of the twins has triplets, one of the triplets has twins, and all of the others have one child apiece, except one of the triplets who has none, how many grandchildren will the couple have?

2. How many ciphers in one decillion? How many ciphers if you add the figure 22,000,000 to it?

3. If it is 1800 miles from Natal to Dakar, and an $80,000 plane flies that route, how much will it cost to send an 18-pound package across the Atlantic there at a postage rate of 80 cents a half ounce?

4. On his old well, Mrs. Ricketts pumps 100 barrels of oil every four days. On his new well, he installs a pump that works twice as fast as the old one. What is his total oil output each week from both wells?

individuals need to save in order to meet the problems likely to arise when defense spending ceases.

A class initiation will be part of the evening's program. Mrs. Sed-

Viola Buck, Mrs. Ann Hammond, Mrs. Mary Teconchuk, Mrs. Mar-

The National Book Week slogan, "Books to Grow On," gave the local organization a splendid opportunity to carry out the project of presenting a special book

Young Singers of Festival Chorus
Highly Praised

Many complimentary reports have been received concerning the concert given Saturday evening in Youngsville by a combined chorus of 125 of the Northwest District's best student voices and one of these is submitted below:

What excellent results can be obtained by an experienced and musically endowed conductor was evidenced Saturday night at the Youngsville festival, when Professor Ralph Appelmann of Westminster College led the carefully selected chorus of high school students of the Northwest District in an exceptionally fine, yet taxing program.

There was splendid precision of attack, a uniform unstrained tone quality even in fortissimo passages and tapering off at the close of songs which one would hardly consider possible to be achieved with such very limited chances for rehearsing.

Warren should be particularly proud of its young musicians, since they were chosen to sing the only four solos in the program, namely Bonny Johnson, Virginia Davis, Melda Olsen and James Shortt.

The program was carefully chosen and classical, sacred and lighter numbers happily mixed, and the pleasure of the audience at the close of each number was the self evident. A Viola Singing the Street by Koshetz, Leston to the Lambs by Dett and Glory be to God by Rachmannoff may be mentioned as particularly well done, but the whole program was a delight and Prof. Appelmann is must be highly complimented, as must be the various teachers who prepared the different groups.

Minnesota Clinches 1st Place in Associated Press Poll

Golden Gophers, Unbeaten in 17 Games, are Picked by 95 Writers for Top Notch

BY BILL BONI
New York, Nov. 25.—(P)—Minnesota's Golden Gophers, unbeaten and untied, and unbeatable, since their season is over—ride high again today in first place in the Associated Press football ranking poll.

Winners of 17 straight games and their second successive Western Conference championship, Bernie Bierman's boys were made first choice by 95 out of 115 sports experts throughout the country. Sixteen writers ranked the Gophers second, three listed them in third place, and one rated them fifth, for a total of 1124 points out of a possible 1150.

With one more poll to go, Minnesota appears a good bet to retain its 1940 No. 1 ranking when the final votes are counted next week.

The Gophers' only serious rivals are two more of the country's four major all-winning teams—Texas A. and M., which still must protect that record against Texas in Thursday's climatic Southwest Conference engagement.

"BAREFOOT BOY"
Glennville, Ga., Nov. 25.—(P)—A. P. Moody checks off touchdowns for Glennville High School in his bare feet.

The 135-pound halfback wore shoes in the opening game this season but they hurt his feet and he has gone shoeless since.

Moody reached his peak against the Savannah Ga. freshmen when he scored the team's three touchdowns on runs of 88, 75 and 65 yards.

Conference engagement, and against Washington State December 6, and Duke, the Southern Conference powerhouse which, like Minnesota, has completed its regular schedule.

The Aggies, given only two first-place votes to Duke's 15, got 41 votes for second and 40 for third in accumulating 922 points. Duke was only 10 points behind in third place. Notre Dame, unbeaten but tied by Army also retained the fourth position. It was voted a week ago. The Irish got two votes for first and 778 points, on a basis of 10 for first, nine for second, eight for third, etc.

Unbeaten and untied, Duquesne moved up a notch to fifth place.

The N. F. O. Heat Treat broke two records in the industrial last night as every man contributed to a new high score game and high team total of respective scores of 950 and 2701. But the Forgers got "hot" when it wasn't necessary, clinching their match with the Crossetts by forfeit.

The Butter Krusts, though they've got a long way to come, seem to be the team that's ready to cause most trouble in the loop from now on. With "Jiggs" Sullivan leading the way, the breadmen last night punched four points from the Bab's Barbers crew, knocking their victims out of the first division of the circuit.

Sullivan really split the wood with a 202 first game, 230 second, and 201 third game. Which reminds us that at the Elks, Bernie Malone once again had one of his typical evenings, a weak middle game flanked by two husky scores that would have given him a 600 series had he been able to hit the wood three times in a row.

Barney had 211 in the first game, 169 in the second, and 201 in the third. Nineteen more punts would have brought him an even 600. Odd part about it is this was the fourth time in two weeks that one game has dropped him down third time that it's been the second game, too.

Some of the lady bowlers are asking us why the league matches are to be postponed this Friday night. We suggest you ask your league president or secretary.

At the Conewango Club Allen Branch hit a big 221 enabling the Yergs to take the third game and win a split with the Logans in a close match last night. Dr. Robertson whiffed the wood for 214 in the second game for the Logans, most of the other scores were minority votes.

DRAGONS STARTING TENTH SEASON IN NORTHERN CLASS A CAGE LOOP; HAVE FINE HISTORY, RECORD IN BASKETBALL

While Coach "Heime" Kolpien assembles his 1941-42 model basketball machine, we dive into the records to bring out some of the less important, but interesting, facts concerning Warren High school cage records down through the years. First, in unofficial records, with all games available taken into consideration, we find the Blue and White fives since 1905 have won 410 decisions and have dropped only 206 games. Since Kolpien entered in 1930 as head basketball coach, the Dragons have shown an even better record, with 180 victories and only 84 losses. "Heime's" first three seasons dumped his team record down badly when the local school boys could win only 22 and lost 32. But since that time they have come on to become the outstanding basketball power in this area, having joined the Northern Class A Basketball League of District Nine in 1933 and winning the loop gonfalon four times since then. Their unofficial all-time composite average is .566; times since then. Their unofficial all-time composite average is .566; times since then. Their unofficial all-time composite average is .566; times since then.

Regarding Northern League ball as the modern basketball of Warren High school, from here on we'll use statistics relative only to the circuit. The Kolpiennians in nine years have won 95 league games, gave up the duke 23 times. They've been in playoffs six times, including their four matches to the championship and into the playoffs. In playoff games the Dragons have garnered ten wins and have lost six encounters. Last year Harry Conroy became the first Warren player ever to lead the league in individual scoring, adding up 194 points in 14 games. A few marks at which this year's charges may shoot are to be found in the following sentences. With 95 league wins, they need only five more triumphs to claim their 100th triumph in the Northern loop. They have a busy 20-game schedule, which may be swelled by a couple of games before the campaign is over next March, and, should they win 20 contests, as long as they're official, they'll be able to win the 200th game since Kolpien took the coaching reins. This is the tenth year for Warren in the Northern League and, though the team may not be the strongest, the Blue and White has ever produced, "Heime" has material sufficient to make the season a booming success if the boys have the spirit.

Quickies... Footballers for the WHS will close their season with a grand march Wednesday night when they trip the light fantastic... Scene will be Beaty gym and there's a penalty for stepping on the toes of girls invited to make the affair a success... Funny how these big brutes can be so shy and light-footed on the grid and yet can't hold their balance to music... Aside to Johnny Nelson of the Bradford Era... We suggest that your annual all-star game in the Northern League be played as a "Golden Ball" game next spring to climax basketball's fiftieth anniversary. Whaddya say, pal? While we're on the subject, Sheffield will offer nothing to this cause because the school has enough trouble making expenses, which isn't a bad reason, nor staying away from things they needn't do... You can bet, however, that the Wolverines would stage such a game if they possibly could... And Joe Massa tells us that the grid squad made money this year so that the hoopers will be decked out in new uniforms when the Northern League season opens... Angelo Sus was named honorary captain of the Bradford football team recently... He's a senior... Oil City has four Flankins has seven lettermen on their respective cage quintets... The Dragons have three and could use that many more.

PLAYERS SHALL WEAR HELMETS IN INTERSTATE

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—(P)—Players in the Interstate Baseball League next season will be protected against bean balls.

Becoming the first organized loop in the country to do so, the Class B circuit yesterday passed a rule at its annual meeting making it compulsory for the clubs to provide helmets for the players.

"We can't force the players to wear them," declared Arthur H. Ehlers, of Baltimore, who was re-elected president, secretary and treasurer. "But we are going to do everything to encourage them."

Two players in the league were injured last year when hit by pitched balls. Lyle Judy, of Trenton, and Andy Anderson, of Hagerstown, Md.

The 1942 season will open on April 29 and close Labor Day, Sept. 7. A schedule providing for 126 games will be drawn up later. The team finishing first will be declared champion with the four first division clubs again participating in a Shaughnessy playoff. John Warden, of Harrisburg.

MANY GRIDDERS IN RUNNING FOR M. V. SELECTION

Seattle, Nov. 25.—(P)—The blond-haired fellow shoved aside a batch of figures, and remarked: "I don't envy the people who annually try to select the man of the year in football. It looks like it will be a terrific task this year."

The speaker was Homer F. Cooke, Jr., who audits American Football Statistical Bureau figures dealing with intercollegiate individual and team football performances.

"As I understand it, the man of the year usually has been a 60-minute player who hasn't missed a game," Cooke said. "He usually plays for a school with an almost unblemished record in the won-and-lost columns against the best of major competition."

"Up to this year, he's been someone who ranks about as high statistically as his team in national standing."

"This year there's much talk for Bruce Smith, Minnesota's great halfback. Yet, Smith was out a couple of games. Nor has he been among the statistical leaders. There's Wilson 'Bud' Schwenk of Washington University at St. Louis, having a terrific passing and rushing year. Yet, his team has been having a poor season. There's Frankie Sinkwich, of Georgia, the broken-jaw boy who's way in front as a rushing yardage gainer. He personally outgained the opposing team four or five times. "Or it could be Bill Dudley of Virginia, who seems certain to be among the first three statistically. There may be some question, about the calibre of his team's opposition. "Elmer 'Tippy' Madarik of Detroit has had a fine season. "Owen Price, Texas Mines triple-threatener, too far overshadowed his team's unsuccessful record against minor competition. "Derace Moser of Texas A. and M., one of the passing leaders all season, has a good chance, and he's with a winning call club. "But apparently there are no such standouts as Whizzer White, Davey O'Brien, Nile Kinnick or Tom Harmon among the candidates. It will be a tough selection."

LONGER VACATION

State College, Nov. 25.—(P)—That victory of Penn State's over Pitt Saturday, the first in 22 years in the Panthers home stadium, has netted the entire student body a longer Thanksgiving vacation.

The council of administration petitioned by 3,900 pupils, agreed to suspend classes Wednesday morning—which means the vacation begins tonight instead of tomorrow noon as scheduled.

To Speed Labor Act Revision

 date to two labor disputants to sit down together or the further step of compelling them to accept in advance the decision of an arbitration board.

Martin said a variety of proposals were put forward, but that no commitments were made.

Speaker Rayburn announced yesterday that the long discussed labor issue would be brought before the house immediately upon disposition of the pending price control bill. That, he said, would mean early next week.

Chairman Norton (D-NJ) of the house labor committee, one of the group which went to the White House, called a meeting of the committee today, determined, she said, to get "some kind of a bill" ready by the week-end.

On the other side of the capital, a senate judiciary sub-committee called James V. Forrestal, under-secretary of the navy, to give his views on a bill by Senator Connally (D-Vt.) to permit the government to take over and operate defense plants when production is halted by labor trouble.

The pure white curly-haired coat of the unborn seal is one of the world's most valuable furs.

Other members of the board are John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, and Benjamin Fairless, head of the United States Steel Corporation.

The captive miners returned to work yesterday after a strike of one week to enforce their demand for the union shop, under which all miners must join the union.

James asserted that if the tax returns of next spring justify it, he would be "more than happy to call a special session next summer for the purpose of passing the fruits of sound finances along to the taxpayers."

Meanwhile, he said, "congressional reapportionment has no bearing whatsoever on taxes."

James recommended a big tax reduction in the apportionment session at a time when it might have a bearing on the 1942 gubernatorial campaign.

 ly or indirectly, support Bolshevism.

The ceremony took place in Ambassadors' Hall of the chancellery. Foreign Minister Ramon Serrano Sumner of Spain and Vice Premier Mihail Antonescu of Rumania were among the representatives here for the occasion.

It was provided that the contracting powers will consult with each other concerning further cooperation before expiration of the five-year period. The pact was originally signed by German and Japanese representatives Nov. 25, 1936.

The extension was said to have been decided upon by the representatives "in realization that the agreement for defense against the activities of the Communist international has proven its worth as well as the conviction that joint interests of their lands demand continued close cooperation against the mutual enemy."

Official commentators denied that the meeting of statesmen was the beginning of a peace offensive. In some quarters Finland's representation in Berlin was viewed as clinching a German contention that the Helsinki government did not contemplate a separate peace with the Soviet Union. Finland's foreign minister, Rolf Johan Witting, was in Berlin to sign up the Finnish government announcing that the action was in keeping with the nation's "anti-Bolshevik attitude."

Copenhagen, Occupied Denmark, Nov. 25.—(P)—Denmark's action in becoming a party to the anti-Communist pact does not affect her position as a non-belligerent in the present war, the Danish foreign office said in a communique today.

The pact demands no political obligations from the little kingdom, the communique stated.

Helsinki Nov. 25.—(P)—The conservative newspaper, Uusi Suomalainen, counseled today against confusing "anti-Communist" with "Axis" and said the fact that Finland had joined the anti-Communist group "does not change our political orientation."

Washington, Nov. 25.—(P)—The arbitration board to settle the union shop issue in the captive coal mine dispute will hold its first meeting in New York at 11 o'clock tomorrow, Dr. John E. Steelman, director of the federal labor conciliation service, announced today.

Other members of the board are John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, and Benjamin Fairless, head of the United States Steel Corporation.
